

Kentucky Shakespeare presents the oldest independent free Shakespeare festival in the U.S. which recently celebrated its 50th Anniversary. Kentucky Shakespeare Festival seeks an experienced Development Director to create and implement a strategic fundraising plan to raise support from corporate, individual, foundation, and government sources. The position reports to the Producing Artistic Director. Must excel in identifying, cultivating, and soliciting gifts; grants application, management and reporting; managing fundraising and cultivation events; as well as working closely with the Board of Directors. Familiarity with Gift Works or similar programs is a plus. Send resume, cover letter with salary requirements and references to jobsearch@kyshakes.org. Please put "Development Director" in the subject line. No phone calls, please. Kentucky Shakespeare is an Equal Opportunity Employer.